For immediate release

ARGYLE, TX (January 12, 2022) – During the Municipal Development District meeting on January 11, 2022, the MDD board was presented with an outline of the Harvest Town Center development. Vice President of Retail for Hillwood, Mark Miller, explained details of the proposed project. Miller also said that Hillwood is in talks with a big grocer for the project. There will be more information available to residents at the January 26, 2022 community meeting at the Argyle Middle School auditorium from 7:15 p.m. to 9:15 p.m.

MDD Fund

Town Administrator Rich Olson presented the MDD board with December 2021 sales tax revenues. In December 2021, the MDD collected $25,215.38 in sales tax, with over 80% of sales tax being generated by businesses that do not have a physical location. Board Director Rick Bradford requested that staff continues to update the MDD on sales tax revenues.

New Logo Approved

At the December 14, 2021 MDD meeting, the board was presented with a brand new logo. Board members asked that there be two additional variations to choose from for the MDD's official new logo. The board decided unanimously on the new logo, which is pictured below.
